INDIAN LINIMENTS.

Eighteen years of practice and experience in making Indian Liniments, which are made, principally, from the trees and plants of mother earth, for all aches and pains, for man or beast, I have had only one woman to say, in the last six months, that my Single Strength Indian Liniment failed to relieve her. Out of the many hundred bottles I have sold, that is not so bad. Our Lord and Master didn't please every body, and I can't expect to. But here is my proposition to you—After you have tried my liniment for any trouble you may have and it fails to check, or lull your pains, return your bottle and get your money back. Twentyfour or 48 hours is long enough to test any of my liniments, when rightly applied. I will fill your order by mail any time, as I will be in Gainesboro several weeks. I also make Indian Liniments poultry, such as chicken cholera, leg-weakness, rheumatism, lice, mites, gapes and other common ailments in the poultry raising.

Dow Langford returned home from over seas May, 18th.

A large crowd attended the dinner at the home of T. B. Langford's last Sunday. The dinner was given in honor of Dow Langford, and other soldier boys who recently returned from the army. The dinner was a magnificent one, and every body seemed to enjoy the feast. The soldiers entertained the crowd in the afternoon, by drilling, which was another big feature of the day.

Mrs. Cinda Smith, and son, Auther, of Dotson's branch, visited T. B. Langford last week, also Rufus Langford of Spring Creek.

Mr. and Mrs. Norris pleasantly entertained a large crowd of young people Saturday night. A large crowd enjoyed themselves at T. B. Langford's one night last week.

J. M. Richardson and wife and Mrs. Manerva Bailey were here Saturday night.

Clifford Bilbrey visited his uncle, Willie Bilbrey, Saturday night. He was given a big dinner by his many friends of Big Bottom, Lock's branch and Webster. The occasion will be long remembered.

The writer and a number of her friends had a most enjoyable time at Rad and Claude Spivey's and Bedford Hall's recently.

Willie Warren Eads is a frequent visitor at uncle Jonas Spivey's (again)

If Your boys and girls are not in club work, they are missing a golden opportunity. If they have a chance to become members and have not, you ought to give yourself a little mental "jacking up" and ask yourself why they are not. With the corn and pig clubs, canning, poultry and home science clubs, agricultural high schools and colleges and books and bulletins about farming, we figure that the next generation of Southern farm men and woman is going to be just about the liveliest bunch in the whole U. S. A. It simply won't do for those boys and girls of yours to miss any of these opportunities. If there is anything good around, they are certainly entitled to a fair share of it. Help them to get it by putting them in club work—now—The Progressive Farmer.

Smith County Farm For Sale.

I WILL ON

Saturday, June 14

BEGINNING AT 10 A. M.

have a clearance sale of a large number of horses, mules, hogs, sheep and cattle to be sold to the highest bidder.

I will also sell on that date my farm known as the Nathan Wilson place lying in the village of Rome, Smith County, Tenn. This farm contains 115 acres, more or less, and it will be sold in separate tracts and in such portions as will bring the most money. This farm has a six room cottage fronting on the Rome pike, beautiful elevation, two splendid barns, 50x80 and 40x80, tenant house, out-houses of every description, and is one of the best homes in Smith county. There is Not A More Productive Farm in Tennessee.

The blue grass and clover grows rapidly and is always on the premises. The soil is loose and easily cultivated and produces from ten to fifteen barrels of corn per acre. It is right at the market. The steamboats land in sight. School just opposite the improvements, churches in sight, good roads, magnificent neighborhood, an ideal place to quietly live close to nature and view the beautiful hills around Round Lick Creek as it meanders to empty into the mighty Cumberland. Within seven miles of Carthage, thirteen miles of Lebanon. And for scenic beauty and fertility it is unsurpassed in this beautiful and happy land of ours.

I am selling this for the reason that I will get a good profit as I am also selling a large amount of personal property on the same date. The terms will be liberal and made known on the day of sale.

The title is perfect and has been in the hands of the Wilsons and their predecessors for more than one hundred years. When the moonlight surrounds this beautiful cottage on this magnificent elevation you can commune with the angels and worship silently and quietly while the farm is ever producing and never failing in its teeming bushels of grain and grazing its herd of cattle, sheep and hogs. This farm will bring a magnificent price, but the Lord has quit making land and still making folks, and the price will ever increase when you get such soil as this, as well as such location.

The sale will commence at 10 o'clock a. m., and continue until all the stock and farm has been sold. Of its many charms and beauties it will take personal inspection to really enjoy the same. Come and be convinced, and when you make this your home you will not be anxious to leave to join the celestial throng.

Possession in the fall of 1919, or by January 1st, 1920. I will give TWENTY DOLLARS in gold to the person on the grounds guessing the nearest amount this farm will bring on on day of sale and Ten Dollars to the second best bid, and Five Dollars to the third best bid.
